MEDICINAL.

CUPID'S MIRROR.

"The beauty of a woman's face or figure is but the external sign of the good health within," says Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the specialist in women's diseases. Further, to be happy and beautiful one must naturally have good health. Now, if a woman has dragging-down feelings, together with constantly returning pains and aches, a too great drain upon her vitality and strength, she will never look beautiful. The feelings of nervousness, the befogged mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, all result from those disorders peculiar to women, and the only way to effect their cure is to strike at the source of the difficulty. There is every reason why she should write some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century like Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge.

During a long period of practice, Doctor Pierce found that a prescription made up entirely of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, cured ninety-eight per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in a form that can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

In many cases Dr. R. V. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will fit the needs and put the body in healthy condition.

So sure of it is Dr. Pierce, he offers a reward of $500 for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering you a cheap substitute.

Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing and get Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper covers, free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

THE PEOPLE ALL.

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WATSON IN PROPHETIC ROLE.

Thomas E. Watson, recently candidate of the people's party for President, yesterday addressed a large crowd at Crawfordsville, Ga., the former home of Alexander H. Stevens. His address was received with close attention, but with no marked enthusiasm. He spoke in part as follows:

"In national politics the democratic party stands without a party, a declaration of principles or accepted leader. It is utterly bankrupt in reputation. It has no unity of conviction, sentiment or purpose. It contains antagonistic elements which can never be harmonized. Its secret purpose is so foreign to what democratic masses approve that the eternal struggle of the national leaders is to prevent the democratic masses from penetrating that secret purpose.

"What is that secret purpose? To use the democratic party in support of the same system of class legislation which the republican party stands for. The watchword is, 'Keep up the attack upon republican individuals, but do not attack the system of special privileges which is responsible for present conditions.' In other words, the secret mission of the democratic party is to keep up a sham battle.

"By keeping the party divided and deluded they hinder the organization of a real opposition to privileged class legislation and corporate greed. Thus the democratic national party is the best friend of which the plutocratic republican party can boast, for the Belmonts, who call themselves democrats, are just as much in favor of special privileges as the Carnegies and Morgans, who call themselves republicans.

"I make this prediction: Bryan will be the candidate of the democratic party in 1908. And I make this second prediction:

"When Bryan runs for President in 1908 as the candidate of the Parker-Belmont-Cleveland-Gorman combine he will be a worse beaten man than Parker ever was.

"Does Mr. Bryan sincerely believe that he can commit the national democratic convention to his recently repaired and replenished populist platform? If so, he must see that the country would then have two populist parties. Such a contingency would be laughable were not the crisis so grave. Mr. Bryan must know that his program promises nothing better than a spectacular combat at another St. Louis convention, with another 'dog fall' as the result, another surrender on the part of Mr. Bryan, another sham battle before the people and another Waterloo in which all will be lost, including honor.

"The democratic party can no longer claim to be national. It is sectional. The South is still its victim. The South is still the quadrennial sacrifice which corrupt or stupid Southern politicians deliver to Wall street. But for the solid South the eastern democracy would have to shut up shop, join the republicans and face a genuine party of opposition.

"What keeps the South solid? Nothing in the world except an out-of-date sectional animosity and the shamelessly hypocritical cry of negro domination.

"In each Southern State there is a monopoly of privilege and power which is fighting for its life. As a rule, the monopoly is based upon the support of northern railroads, northern banks, northern manufacturers, the school-book trust and the cottonseed oil trust. Fed bountifully from these rich sources the democratic machine in the Southern States is very haughty indeed. It wants no change. Southern politicians will sacrifice the national ticket any time to maintain the local monopoly.

"And the 'negro question' is the joy of their lives. They exist upon it. They fatten on it. With one shout of 'nigger' they can run native democrats to their homes at any hour of the day. Men who appear to have some common sense in other directions lose all their mental bearings when the 'negro question' is sprung, and they immediately begin to hop around in a Dervish dance of the political hysteria.

"The South cannot afford to be sectional. In self-defense she must be national. If we allow our Southern leaders to put us in a degrading position nationally ours is the fault. As long as we allow the solid South to be a political slave to a handful of eastern capitalists we may expect to feel the lash of the slave driver and to feel the weight of the chain.

"Let us put a finish to this degradation of the South. Let us assert our manhood against the tyranny of political bosses. Let us break the shell of this bourbonism, which neither learns nor forgets."

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

Thousands Cured.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of Piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the recommendation of our druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex., "and used it for a stubborn case of Piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by all druggists.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING. DEC. 1, 1904

THE ACTION of Mayor Paff yesterday afternoon in suspending two members of the police force for violation of a positive rule formulated by the Police Commissioners for the government of the force is the outcome of incidents which have caused no little comment in the community recently. His action, it is hoped, may prove a deterrent in future not only to those who are paying the penalty for their thoughtlessness, but to others also who may be tempted to deliberately ignore rules they promise to obey when they accept positions of public trust. This is not the first instance in recent years when officers who are paid to patrol their beats and protect life and property have had similar charges urged against them, but on other occasions the allegations have been combated and in most cases the persons charged with such infractions of police rules have, for want of what was regarded as positive and incontrovertible evidence, been deemed innocent. There was, however, no attempt made yesterday to evade anything on the part of the accused, and the latter honestly plead guilty to the indictment, asserting at the time that their conduct would be different in the future. There is every reason to believe that the men who yesterday paid the penalty due their singular want of respect for rules adopted for their government are not the only ones who occasionally run desperate risks in the same line, and the action of the Mayor should be a sufficient warning to such. He imposed the maximum penalty, and by so doing signified his determination to pass like judgment on all others who may so far forget their obligations to the community as to be guilty of similar breaches of rules. His honor in passing sentence deplored the fact that the delinquents had imposed such a hardship upon him, and by so doing voiced the feelings of most persons in positions of power when duty calls them to perform a disagreeable but necessary act. People, however, in subordinate positions fail to realize that in cases similar to those referred to above they not only bring just judgment upon themselves, but are cruel to others whose obligations compel them to require effectual discipline. It is hoped that the Mayor will be spared such duties in the future.

THE GENERAL MANAGER of the Washington and Alexandria ferry line when interviewed today concerning the likelihood of another ferry boat being placed on the line, knew nothing of the intentions of the company, nor does any one else seem to have any idea what is to be done by those in control. In the meantime the loss to the community and the inconvenience to all concerned, especially the business interests of Washington, are being felt more and more each day. Heretofore Washington newspapers, when ferry traffic has been interrupted, have been disposed to regard such a state of affairs in a vein of pleasantry, but in recent years conditions have so changed that the stoppage of the ferryboats is a serious matter with Washingtonians. Alexandria has for some time been regarded as a base of supplies for Washington, and, as was stated a day or two ago, merchants of that city experienced and appreciated the benefit of having at their beck and call Alexandria warehouses to draw upon when they found certain departments were in need of immediate recuperation. A telephone message was followed an hour or two later by the delivery of the desired goods on their pavements. This procedure was much more satisfactory than sending to Baltimore and being compelled to wait until the next day for goods. A Wash-

[illegible] in the first place, the effect of doubling the rate of freight if recourse is had to shipments by wagon road, and more than doubling it if the shipper transports his wares by rail. Manifestly the renewal of the service is an urgent need, and it is imperative that a new company be organized and a new service created.

There has been a ferry line in one form or another between Alexandria and Washington for one hundred and nine years, and it is a source of regret that at the dawn of the twentieth century the service should have been brought to a close. It has always been held by practical people that two good ferryboats would earn satisfactory dividends, provided it was an assured fact that a steamer would leave each end of the route every hour of the day.

A GIGANTIC scheme to defraud the government out of large sums of revenue has been discovered in St Louis by officers who have been secretly investigating the failure of certain dealers in oleomargarine to cancel revenue stamps on packages of the commodity. The arrest in that city of an oleomargarine dealer brought to light the charges, and numerous other arrests will follow. Not only do the officers charge revenue stamps being used more than once, but citizens have been purchasing colored oleomargarine when they supposed it was butter, certain dealers, one of whom was recently convicted, having been styling themselves creamery companies for misleading purposes.

SENATOR STEWART, of Nevada, told the President on Tuesday that his State had come into the republican column for good. "Two years ago," said Senator Stewart, "the people of Nevada listened to Bryan's dream of silver's future. This year they heard him through, but refused to take any stock in his talk and swung into the republican list." Now this comes with poor grace from the Senator who but a few years ago was an ultra free silverite himself, made free silver and Bryan speeches in this city and elsewhere and was the head and front of the Silver Knight' a free silver paper published in Alexandria and scattered throughout the country.

SENATOR BURROWS, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, has issued subpenas for 20 witnesses in the Senator Reed Smoot investigation, and has fixed Monday, December 12, as the date for their appearance before the committee. Nearly all these witnesses are in Utah. Senator Burrows's committee was appointed many months ago and was to have gone to Utah last summer to have made a part of its investigation, but lest a prodding of the Mormons might have removed the State from the republican column, the matter has been delayed until this time with a strong probability of a further delay.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1.

Since it became generally known that the President was in favor of a revision of the tariff, the White House has been besieged by representative "stand-patters." Although he has not yet taken to cover, there are indications that he is willing to reconsider his views relative to an extra session of Congress next spring if it can be shown that the interests of the party demand a postponement of what he believes to be inevitable. At present they are bending every effort to prevent serious public discussion of the subject during the coming session. They are anxious to stave off the suggested special message from the White House on the subject. The President has so far acceded to their wishes as to omit any discussion of the general tariff in his forthcoming annual message. Whether or not they will be able to induce him to "let well enough alone" until the fourth of March is a question. Two weeks ago the President is said to have declared to one of his callers that he would call an extra session in the spring unless something then unforeseen should cause him to change his mind. He is now feeling the pulse of the leaders, and it is believed that he has come to see that an extra session in the spring would be obnoxious to the majority of the leaders. He has not yet said that he would not call such a session, but as matters are now shaping themselves an extra session seems more remote that it did two weeks ago. Speaker Cannon recently spent an evening with the President going over the subject. He advised against an extra session for tariff purposes. His argument is that in the recent campaign the slogan was "stand-pat," and that it was because of this that the people rolled up such a tremendous majority for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. Mr. Cannon feels that there would be little excuse for tariff revision at this time in the face of their verdict. He left the President unconvinced but still open to argument.

Consul General Samuel R. Gummare, who became prominent through his successful negotiations with the Sultan of Morocco for the rescue of Pedicaris when held by the bandit Raisuli, had a conference with Assistant Secretary of State Loomis this morning in which he urged that American commercial interests awaken to the importance of the trade in Morocco. A. F. Jaurett, the American correspondent who was recently expelled from Venezuela was another caller at the department and it was stated that the purpose of his consultation was the formulation of the formal complaint which he intends to file with the department.

Arguments in the Senator Burton case were resumed in the Supreme Court today. Senator Burton was again in court, as was his colleague, Senator Long, of Kansas.

The Treasury closed the first month of the fiscal year with a deficit of $29,940,330. In the month of November the deficit has increased $4,120,122

[illegible] the corresponding period of 1903 and less than $94,000,000 in 1902. Our exports to Canada have grown from $28,829,402 in 1865 to $131,274,346.

President Roosevelt this morning promised to appoint the only living grandson of Stonewall Jackson, Stonewall Jackson Christian, to the Military Academy at West Point. Representative Livingston, of Georgia, accompanied by Col. J. C. Woodward, principal of the Georgia Military Acedemy, made the request for young Christian's appointment. The young man is a son of General Jackson's daughter. At the same time President Roosevelt promised to appoint a son of Harry Stillwell Edwards, postmaster at Macon, to the Academy, saying that he would name one of the boys one year and the other the next.

No attempt has been made to serve the capias or to arrest Leiter, because State's Attorney Scott, who will retire tomorrow, wishes to leave the case over for his successor. The indictments grew out of the labor troubles and shooting affairs at the Zeigler Mining Company's plant. Indictments have also been returned against Attorney Henry R. Platt, of the Zeigler Mining Company.

Looking toward a trestle which spanned a deep cut near her home and seeing that the trestle was on fire, she snatched up a red tablecloth, rushed down the track and flagged the train. A delegation of passengers went to the girl's home, expressed their thanks and assured her she would be rewarded.

The animal will be kept under chloroform, bound to the leg for several days, until the doctors are satisfied that the skin has adhered or that the operation is a failure. Then the animal will be killed.

Just as the robber fired, however a confederate came behind West and knocked him senseless. Both highwaymen then ran away without robbing their victim, who quickly recovered and notified the police.

CAPTURE OF METRE HILL.

Russians Leave Heaps of Dead—Metre Hill, Captured by Japanese, Commands Port Arthur Harbor.

Tokio, Dec. 1.—It was officially announced today that the Japanese forces charged to the top of "203 Metre Hill" at 7 o'clock this morning, and an hour later occupied the entire summit. The Russians left heaps of dead. The official report on the taking of 203 Metre Hill is as follows:

"Our army began the bombardment of 203 Metre Hill at dawn yesterday. We made several charges before 4 p. m., all of which failed owing to the enemy's stubborn resistance. At 5 p. m. we advanced against the southeastern part of the hill, and after a fierce fight got within thirty yards of the summit. At 7 p. m., after we had been reinforced, the charge was renewed. We successfully reached the top. Our forces operating against the northeastern fort were similarly successful, and at 8 p. m. the entire fortifications on the top of the hill fell into our hands. The Russians left heaps of dead on the eastern side of the hill, but we had no time to investigate them. 203 Metre Hill commands Port Arthur harbor."

London, Dec. 1.—The Japanese have Port Arthur all but in their grasp. The taking of 203 Metre Hill, news of which was contained in an official dispatch from Tokio this morning, is the most decided step toward the final occupation of the Russian stronghold since the outer line of fortresses was assaulted and taken. The eminence, which is to the west of Port Arthur itself, is the highest point in that direction, and from its summit the Japanese can sweep every inch of the harbor, as well as every position outside of Liao Tishan and Tiger Tail, which the Russians can take. As a result, it is generally believed in expert and official circles news will shortly be received of the final demolition of the remaining Russian vessels in the harbor by the heavy calibre guns which the troops have mounted on the hill. But one thing, it seems, can now save General Stoessel and his brave band of defenders from compulsory and immediate surrender to General Nogi. This is a withdrawal of the Russians to Liao Tishan and Tiger Tail, where, if they have sufficient provisions, they can hold out for some time. The Japanese, however, are reported to have worked a portion of their force around to the territory between these forts and the present position of General Stoessel and there is a strong probability that Russian retreat in this direction is, or will shortly be, cut off. This would mean the final doom of the besieged. The fighting at 203 Metre Hill has been terrific, and the eminence was taken at an appalling cost of life to both Japanese and Russians. The bombardment has been in progress since November 29.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 1.—General Kuropatkin today reports as follows: "We have repulsed the enemy who retreated from Tsinchen. We forced the enemy's rear guard on Tuesday to evacuate a pass ten versts south of Tsinchen. Our loss in these were inconsiderable."

Proceedings to be Dropped.

New York, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, the Cleveland society woman whose financial dealings have caused so much stir, has satisfied Herbert Newton, of Brookline, Mass., one of those holding big claims against her, that she can and will pay the $190,800 which she borrowed from him. As a result, the legal proceedings brought against her, by Newton, will be dropped. The surveillance which has been kept on the woman during her sojourn at the Holland House here has been stopped, and Mrs. Chadwick, it is stated, has already made preparations to leave the city for her home in Cleveland. It is thought she will there be able to arrange all her affairs, and that she will soon leave for some health resort in the south where she may recuperate from the trying times she has experienced the past week. These results followed a lengthy conference held at the Park Avenue Hotel last night, which did not end until midnight.

The Paris and London Exchange.

London, Dec. 1.—Anxious creditors this morning besieged the offices of the London & Paris Exchange the banking and brokerage firm which yesterday closed its doors. The officials of the company declared it was impossible to issue an authoritative statement until [illegible] conference of the principal creditors this afternoon. The St. James Gazette says the liabilities of the exchange will not exceed 200,000 pounds. It is believed all creditors will be paid in full. The suspension of the company was no factor in the securities market. The retention of the rate of discount of the bank of England at three per cent. created an excellent impression, and offset the influence which the suspension might otherwise have caused.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Dec. 1, 11 a. m.—The stock market was strong and active this morning on heavy purchases by interests which have hitherto been waiting for a reaction of a larger extent than any which has yet occurred. Much buying took place on the part of those tired of waiting for a lower level. The high class stocks again were prominent. In the industrial group, the electric stocks again were in demand, with a gain of over a point in Westinghouse. The iron and steel issues were firm, but without special movement. Sugar advanced over a point. There was comparatively little reaction even after the second hour set in, and where recessions occurred they were principally shifting of speculative accounts.

Rioting in Illinois.

Benton, Ill. Dec. 1.—The two companies of State militia now at Zeigler, together with the aid of four gatling guns, were unable to quell a riot at Zeigler last night, which began at 10 o'clock, and continued until four o'clock this morning. Advices from there this morning state that four militiamen, three from Mount Vernon and one from Carbondale, have been wounded. At one o'clock Deputy Sheriff Stein gathered a posse of forty farmers who rode into the camp and firing from the outside ceased. Sheriff Stein will today surround himself with a posse of 100 men and go to Zeigler in the hope of quelling the disturbances. Trouble is feared tonight. Threats have been made as to dynamiting the million dollar coal plant of Leiter, but so far no efforts have been made along that line. Assistant Adjutant General Reece telegraphed for two more companies of militia today. He fears more trouble.

Smashed Furniture.

New York, Dec. 1.—Sixteen months of wedded life, stormy almost from the first hour, was quite enough for Mrs. William Moore. Her romance came to a sudden end yesterday in the West Side Police Court. Her husband, the son of W. J. Moore, a millionaire manufacturer of Albany, was a prisoner, charged with smashing furnishings that cost thousands of dollars, striking his wife with his fist, and, finally, attempting to hit her with a heavy malacca walking stick. According to Mrs. Moore, her husband has been drinking to excess for three months or more. He receives an income of 10,000 a year from his father, and has no employment. Moore was deeply penitent. With tears in his eyes, he begged his wife to forgive him, but she refused to do so, declaring she would enter suit for divorce.

Married a Mohammedan.

New York, Dec. 1.—The first international marriage to take place in the City Hall in several years was performed yesterday afternoon by Alderman Poole, when he joined in wedlock Mahamoued Lahib Moharrem Bey, a Mohammedan and a scion of Egyptian nobility, to Miss Ellen Scott Marks, daughter of Samuel B. Marks, of Montgomery, Ala. The bride, whose father is wealthy, is a Catholic. The family did not sanction the union because of the fact that her husband is a devout worshipper of Allah and Mohammed, his prophet. Miss Marks by becoming a wife of a Mohammedan shows trust in him, for there is nothing in his religion to prevent him establishing a harem and taking other helpmates as long as he doesn't exceed four, the number prescribed by the Mohammedan law.

She jumped from her buggy and stood enveloped in a sheet of flame. A passing farmer ran to her assistance, and with blankets smothered out the blaze. Mrs. Marker is in a serious condition.

Killed by Sulphurous Fumes.

Having gone to sleep beside a smoldering pile of chemical waste on a lot near Olney, Pa., used as a dump, three men were found dead yesterday morning, and John B. Jawka, 50 years of age, was only revived at the Jewish Hospital after an hour's treatment. A chemical manufacturing company nearby has the privilege of dumping its waste material on the lot, which is beside the tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway for the purpose of burning it. Often after the pile has been lighted the remains smolder for several days, and a strong, sulphurous gas is generated by it. Late on Tuesday night four tramps walking along the railroad spied the remains of the fire and laid down close by congratulating themselves on securing a warm place to spend the night. Evidently the men fell asleep without noticing the fumes. Early yesterday morning Thomas Heisler, William Powers and B. Schench in passing the lot noticed the men lying there and scented the sulphurous fumes. A hurried investigation showed that three of the tramps were dead. The fourth, it is thought, will die.

Tragedy After Elopment.

Two men were shot and killed and another seriously wounded by J. M. Williams, a farmer near the town of Alvarado, Texas, recently. Stephen McKinney, a young farmer, who had been paying attention to the stepdaughter of Williams, failing to win his consent to marriage, ran away with the girl and married her. McKinney and his bride returned home and the bridegroom went to work on his farm. Williams went to the town of Alvarado and bought a rifle. Then, riding out to the field where McKinney, his father and brother were at work, the enraged man, without a word, opened fire, killing Stephen. The elder McKinney rushed to the rescue of his son and was himself shot dead. The brother, too, was seriously wounded. Officers have started to arrest Williams, and trouble is anticipated.

Want of a Ferry.

The animation which for over half a century has been apparent at the old ferry wharf, eastern end of King street, has in a measure been transferred to Royal street, near Prince, the result of the closing of the Washington and Alexandria ferry. Much of the merchandise passing between the two cities is transported over the road in wagons, while a large percentage is carried by the electric railway. Consequently numbers of wagons which formerly lined up at the foot of King street and awaited the arrival of the ferry steamer now take their stand at Prince and Royal streets for the purpose of receiving or shipping goods. When the weather becomes unpropitious the freight traffic of the electric railway will be materially increased should no boat in the meantime be put upon the ferry line. Two years ago, when a determined effort was made to procure two suitable ferry boats a menace, it was said, from a powerful corporation scared the projectors off, and subsequently the antiquated steamer George Washington was brought here from New York. This steamer, built forty-eight years ago, has, according to the steamboat inspectors, outlived her day of usefulness, and will not be suffered to carry passengers or freight until certain costly repairs are made. It is time something was being done toward restoring the ferry service.

Alarm of Fire.

An alarm of fire was sounded shortly after 8 o'clock last night, caused by the overturning of a coal oil lamp in a house near the corner of Gibbon and Pitt streets. The flames were extinguished before the fire department reached the neighborhood, although there was a quick response.

Part of the roof of the Alexandria House, southwest corner of Prince and St. Asaph streets, was found to be burning last night. Mr. Stephen Taylor, driver of the Columbia hose wagon, subdued the flames with an extinguisher, and no alarm was sounded.

A gasoline stove exploded in the Braddock House at an early hour yesterday morning, and before the flames were extinguished considerable anxiety was experienced.
